K, OF P. BUILDING PLANS,

Project of Down-Town Lodges to Put Up a Structure.

The Marion Trust Company filed a final report in the Superior Court yesterday as receiver of the Castle Hall Association. The receivership was created for the purpose of adjusting the differences existing between the association and the K. of P. Grand Lodge. Since the receiver was appointed the Grand Lodge has acquired the real estate of the Castle Hall Association and the trust is now about wound up. Some of the K. of P. lodges in this city have concluded that it is useless to hope for the erection of a building at the Wood nt, and are planning to put up a buildng of their own. Five of the six downtown lodges are interested in the movement Some time ago lodges Nos. 1, 2, 7, 25 and 97 appointed a joint committee to discuss and port on the building project. No. 56, a vn-town lodge, has not yet consented to join the movement, but the members of the other lodges think No. 56 will come around all right. If it is decided to buy ground which formed a part of the old Coburn estate on Ohio street will be purchased. The ground is on the north side of Ohio street, between Delaware and Alabama streets. It is owned by General Coburn and can be purchased for $16,000. It has a frontage of fifty-four feet and is 2021/2 feet It is proposed to erect a four or fivebuilding, with business rooms on the first floor and apartments on the second and third floors. The lodgerooms would occupy the fourth or fifth floors. The lodges inter- | clation has failed to pay the insurance. ested in the plan have about enough money to buy the real estate, but would be com-pelled to borrow funds with which to build. At the meeting of lodge No. 7 last night e members voted in favor of the plan. It is the intention to build this year, if the mmittee appointed by the different lodges make a favorable report.

EVIDENCE OF MRS. KLINE

THE SAME AS WAS GIVEN AT THE FORMER GOODIN TRIAL.

Asked Directly If She Did Not Kill Her Husband-A New Witness.

Lulu Kline, the self-confessed vitrio thrower, was on the witness stand most of the day yesterady in the Criminal Court. It was Mrs. Kline who threw acid on Dr. Aimee Haskinson one night in May, 1898, and after her arrest made a confession, implicating Mrs. Maud Goodin. Mrs. Kline is the state's chief witness against Mrs. Goodin in the trial now in progress. Although Mrs. Kline has been in jail nearly a year, the confinement has not told on her as much as one would suppose. She has had considerable trouble with her throat in the last six months and has suffered a great deal with tonsilitis. Attorney Wiltsie made the statement yesterday evening that the woman was yet suffering as a result of the removal of her tonsils and objected to her o'clock.

The personal appearance of the prosecuting witness is much improved. When she came into court yesterday morning with Sheiff Clark and wife, she wore a neatfitting black dress and a white straw hat trimmed in black. Those who are familiar may avail himself in defense of the action with the history of Mrs. Kline will remember the tragic death of her husband at Brightwood several years ago. He was employed in the railroad sheps and worked nights. One morning he came in from work and went to bed. So far as known there was no one about the house except his wife and children. He was assaulted while he slept that morning and when found was in a dying condition. His skull had criminal pleading there should be such a been crushed with a hatchet. Although he lived several hours after the assault he was not able to tell who had attacked him. The him to plead the verdict and judgment in Cincinnati case yet remains a mystery. The witness did not reply to the question.
"Now, I'll ask you," said the attorney,
"if it is not true that you killed your own

"No, sir, I did not," exclaimed the witness, unable to control herself. Mrs. Kline, during her direct examination, related a story similar to that told by her in the former trial of the case. She told of her acquaintance with Mrs. Goodin, of the latter's apparent jealousy of James Van Netta's attentions to Miss Haskinson and Netta's Alline, Hadley, S.—A cottenant can be create a lien on the land, pending a partition suit, which will be binding upon him, and at sale of the lands such lien may be transferred from the lands to the fund arising from the sale under proper order of court. of the conspiracy to throw vitriol on the young woman.

The state produced another new witness yesterday whose evidence it is claimed greatly strengthens the case. This witness was Mrs. Clinton Lowe, a member of the First Baptist Church choir. Mrs. Lowe testiefid that on a Friday night in May she attended a rehearsal of the choir at the Baptist Church. Dr. Haskinson lives near the church at Pennsylvania and New York treets. The witness said that after rehearsal she was waiting outside the church for her husband. Her attention was attracted by two women standing near her, who seemed to be looking at Dr. Haskinson's house. According to the witness, one of the women said: "If I thought he was ence to an insurance company organized unin there now I'd go over and blow both their brains out." In bringing out this testimony the state hoped to corroborate the story of Mrs. Kline, to the effect that she ard Mrs. Goodin went to Dr. Haskinson's house one night with the intention of shooting through the winodw.

He asserted that the court might take into account the evils which the fee and salary laws cor-rected, particularly the fee evil, which allowed men to become rich after one term in There was not necessarily an inequality, he argued, because the county officials all hired clerks at low wages to do the office work, and seldom devoted much of their time to it. The arguments of the other side, he declared, were stale and had been decided in a number of cases to be

The Two Thomas O'Briens.

During thi sterm of the Federal Court an attempt will be made to discover whether Thomas O'Brien, of Indiana, or Thomas O'Brien, of Maine, should draw the pension which Thomas O'Brien, of Indiana, is drawing. The Indiana O'Brien is under arrest charged with violating the pension laws. His mate in the army says the Maine O'Brien should draw the pension. The O'Brien in jail yearns to face his mate and lemand what he means by denouncing him.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. MILWAUKEE, May 23.-Milwaukee larrupped the Indianapolis team to-day by a score of 7 to 1 in as pretty a nine-inning game as has been seen in Milwaukee this season. Rettger was invincible and five scattered hits were all that the former champions could secure off his delivery, while Foreman was hit hard in three innings and the Brewers fattened their batting averages at his expense. Waldron, Nicol and McFarland did the heaviest batting and the palm for fielding went to Hallman, Stewart and Gray. The fielding was sharp and made the game exciting for the spectators. The only error was on an extra hard Milwaukee improved the first inning for making runs, Waldron hitting safely and Nicol following with a homer past Sharrott. Two more singles were made subsequently, but sharp fielding prevented any more runs from being scored. Three blanks followed and then three singles helped in two more tallies for Milwaukee. Shoch opened the sixth with a single, Hallman sacrificed, Speer, Waidron and Nicol each hit for a base and a double steal by Waldron and Nicol resulted in three runs being chalked up for the Brewers. This ended their run-getting, as Foreman was invincible during the following two innings.

For seven innings in succession the Hoosiers were blanked, but in the eighth Allen hit for a single and Stewart for two bags, placing the captain of the team on third. Hickey flew out to Shoch, Stafford got Foreman's foul and then Hogriever hit slowly to Gray, who made a feint to throw to first base, but caught Stewart between third and second after Allen scored. McFarland made a desperate effort in the ninth, hitting for a base, but dying at second when Motz hit to Hallman, and the other two outs were easy for Milwaukee. Score: A.B. R. H. O. A.

Wabash Shows Signs of Life.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. CRAWFORDSVILLE, Ind., May 23 .- The Wabash team succeeded in breaking its hoodoo by defeating the home team here to-day. The Crawfordsville aggregation got a fair sample of dirty ball playing, and that several of her players are not laid up with broken limbs is no fault of the Wabash players. The score: Crawfordsville 1 0 1 1 1 0 1 0 3-813 8 game, Indiana landing on Purdue's pitcher in the first two innings and batting out six runs. McKinsie was then put in and did much better. Porter, for Indiana, held Purdue down to seven hits and could have shut them out had he been in condition. Purdue played a plucky uphill game and nearly tied the score, taking advantage of Indiana's errors. For Indiana, Willson, Maiotte and Millette played the best game in the field and Kelley, Pike and Captain Pitcher did the best work with the bat. The

The Cowboys' order of goat juice has not been filled yet, evidently. Six stolen bases show it must have been a bad day for Kahoe also. Every manager who goes against St. Louis comes away with a vigorous kick. The Hoosiers are doing some wonderful fielding these days, but it takes more than that to win games. Ten Sunday games at home are in the ball schedule as arranged at the beginning played. Phillips, Hahn, Callahan, Phillippi, Jones and Taylor, all Western League graduates. are the leading pitchers in the National League. If those two Lawson brothers are really

"If I was to pitch on such a day as to-day I would be no use for two weeks afterward. I was scheduled to pitch to-day, but it was too frosty for an old vet like me, so they put in 'Colt' Scott." President Golt, of the Indianapous club, joined his team here yesterday and will make the circuit with it. with it. He spent last evening at the Republican House with President Killilea and Manager Mack, of the Milwaukee club, talking over Western League affairs.—Milwaukee Sentinel.

No One to Receive It.

About eight months ago Mrs. David Flynn wandered away from home during a temporary aberration of the mind. She has never returned, and yesterday her husband was buried. He left life insurance amounting to $1,000, and the insurance company does not know what to do with the money. It cannot be paid to the children except through an administrator and such an ap-pointment cannot be made in a case of this kind until the absence has been away five years. Probate Commissioner Walker thinks that a special administrator might be ap-pointed in this case with a sufficient bond to protect the estate against loss for five years, or until something is known of the fate of Mrs. Flynn.

Wanted a Heavy Sentence.

Upon a plea of guilty Sandy Sanders, colored, arrested for stealing a pocketbook containing $11 in money, some drafts and jewelry from Mrs. Glazier, of Chicago, who is visiting Dr. Morrison, 1721 College avenue, was sent to the Criminal Court. In the Police Court Sanders said he did not want to go to the workhouse, as he knew, having been there so often before, such a sentence would do him no good. To Judge Alford Sanders said he wanted the heaviest sentence possible. He was sent to the Indiana Reformatory for one to three years.

End of a Little Bout. "Just for fun" a little bout was started yesterday between Edward Owens, 315 East Washington street, and Edward Bennett, both of whom are employed at the Barry saw works on South Pennsylvania street. When the bout terminated Owens was cut above the eye. Owens went to the City Dispensary to have his injuries dressed and was taken in charge by Bicycle Police Schroeder and Hauser, who, after learning the name of his assailant, brought him also to the station. The men are charged with assault and battery. To Return Her to Reformatory. Edith Hawk, a pretty miss of eighteen years, was taken to the police station last night by John J. Stalker, an attorney, to be held until she can be returned to the Reformatory. The young woman's parents live at Muncie and about three years ago she was sent to the Reformatory. She was released eighteen months ago on furlough and the prison matron upon being advised that the girl was running wild, asked for her return. Stalker found her at Fort Wayne. Roscoe Conklin Abroad. there for a short time, en route to Manila, with his regiment, the Eighteenth Infantry. RAILROAD TIME CARD. P. M. time is in BLACK figures.—Trains marked thus: *-Daily, S-Sleeper, P-Parlor Car, C-Chair Car, D-Dining Car, t-Except Sunday.
